Christmas Message

Dear Parishioners,

We want to thank you for your generous support to us and to the parish in 2009. As we celebrate the birth of our Lord and Saviour, may Christmas be a time of great joy and happiness for you and your families. May the Child Jesus bless you and your loved ones now and throughout the coming year. May your wishes be granted, your needs supplied and your lives filled with the joys of life and the gifts of God's blessings. We wish you all a Happy Christmas and a Peaceful New Year.

Dear Fr. Powell, Fr. McDonagh, Family, Parishioners and Friends
I pray my Christmas greetings find you all well.....

By the time you read my letter, I will have met with Dolores and Jim and received the income from your recent 'Sale of Work' run by the T.L.C. Group! This is a great achievement and I know the children will benefit from every effort you have made to make a difference in their lives. As always your kindness and ligence of heart cannot be expressed in mere words but I truly wish you to know how grateful I am for all your ongoing support and love. Your interest in my work always brings you so close. Meanwhile I wish you all a blessed, happy and peaceful Christmas and New Year 2010.

Yours united in prayer -

Sr. Bernadette Duffy

P.S. Sorry to hear Ireland was put out of the World Cup. I had hoped, at Fr. Joe's invitation, to have accommodated as many of you as possible in the garage!!

Monday 28th December 2009 - Fancy Dress Christmas Party at 9.00pm
Tullylish GAA Club.

Dear Bishop John,

Greetings from Tullaghan, Diocese of Limerick.

As Christmas approaches, we are reminded that both ourselves and the world to which we live are imperfect. There is much room for improvement.

Here in Tullaghan the people continue to struggle with famine, drought and (more recently) cholera. On your side, the year 2009 has been challenging economically and in the realm of the spirit. The church herself has not been immune....

However, it is precisely because we live in an imperfect world that we can hope. If the world was perfect, there would be no need to hope!

And we have the further guarantee as Christians that the birth of Jesus has brought the presence of integrity among us. It is for us to actualize it. Mission is "action in hope".

We in Tullaghan will celebrate Christmas in a simple way. But we will not forget to pray for our many friends and supporters in the Diocese of Dromore. There will be no frost or snow here. The stars will be clear in the sky! This will remind all of us that "a future without hope is like night without stars".

With kindest personal regards.

+Patrick J. Harrington SMA (Bishop of Limerick, Northwest Kerry).
