Mass of the Lord's Supper
 This Mass is the memorial of the institution of the Eucharist and the priesthood. We all share in Christ's call to be generous people and so we are all called to share bread with the hungry.

Penill's Letter to Ireland
 Wednesday 17th March 2010

Benedict XVI today announced that his pastoral letter to the Church in Ireland will be signed on Friday, (19th March) Feast of St. Joseph and sent soon after.

The Pope's letter, promised since he met recently with the Irish Bishops in Rome, responds to the scandal of sexual abuse: "Today is the Feast of St. Patrick, and in a special way I greet all the Irish faithful and pilgrims here present," he said at the conclusion of the English-language summary of the general audience in Rome on Wednesday.

The "World's continued," as you know, in recent months the Church in Ireland has been severely shaken as a result of the child abuse crisis. As a sign of my deep concern I have written a pastoral letter dealing with this painful situation. I will sign it on the solemnity of St. Joseph, the Guardian of the Holy Family and Patron of the Universal Church, and send it soon after.

Benedict XVI expressed his hope that the letter will "help in the process of repentance, healing and renewal."

"I ask all of you to read it for yourselves, with an open heart and in a spirit of faith," he said.

A summary of the letter will be read at masses this weekend.

The full text of the letter is available on the website of the Bishops' Conference (www.catholicbishops.ie). The text of the letter will be available in hard copy from Veritas in two weeks' time.
