The broken chain
 We little know that morning when God was going to call your name.
 In life we loved you dearly, in death we do the same.
 We hope you want to let us know you still will go home.
 For part of us went with you, the day God called you home.
 You left us painful memories, your love is still our guide.
 And though we cannot see you, you are always at our side.
 Our family chain is broken, and nothing seems the same.
 But as God calls us one by one, the chain will link again.
