

Trócaire has been in touch in connection with the special collection this coming weekend. While the original focus of the collection was the plight of refugees from the violence in Syria, the funds collected will also be used to reach out to the people affected by the typhoon in the Philippines.

I

Yours sincerely,

□

Most Rev John McAreavey