

Tullylish Art Group launched their exhibition 'Somewhere in my Memory' in Ballydougan Pottery on Thursday 6th February 2020. Joined by around 50 guests, Lise Couture (art tutor) thanked everyone for coming and added how proud she was of her 'pupils'. Lisa also thanked Claire Patience from LLTCA who helped with the grant application from Awards for All. Everyone enjoyed the beautiful canapes prepared by Ballydougan Pottery with a nice glass of wine/soft drinks/ tea/ coffee. Many thanks to Sean and Marie O'Dowd for hosting the Launch of the Exhibition and to Bridget and Mary for the excellent service. An extra wee thank you to Con Campbell who, not only helped with the preparations on Wednesday night, but entertained us with his words of 'wisdom'! A most enjoyable night was had by all!

Paintings by Sean O'Dowd

Paintings by Diane Campbell

Paintings by Maire Gaffney

Paintings by Mairead Magee

Paintings by Catherine McEvoy

Paintings by Linda Savage

Paintings by Eithne Doyle

Paintings by Conagh O'Neill

Maire Gaffney, Sean O'Dowd and Diane Campbell

William O'Dowd and Marie O'Dowd

Kathleen McEvoy, Bernie McEvoy and Anne McEvoy

Maureen O'Neill, Mairead Weir and Oonagh O'Neill

Oonagh O'Neill and Peter Thomas

Margaret Campbell, Margaret Convery and Jocelyn Harper

Myriam, Marie and Una O'Dowd

Lise Couture and her husband McEvoy

John and Mary Johnston with Linda Savage

Marie Caffrey with Helen Caffrey Flynn and her two daughters

Lise Couture and her husband Feargal McAnerney

Rosemary Doyle and Theresa Rafferty

Niall and Maria O'Donnell

Paul, Garth, Grange, Leona, Savage and Leona's daughter

Eithne Doyle with Anne and Mary Morgan

Siobhan, Mairead and Paul Magee

Maurice Thompson, Debbie Campbell and Conleth O'Dowd

Sean and Niamh Dowlin with Eileen O'Dowd

Claire Patience with Isabel Quilietti and Nuala Monaghan

Lise Couture with fellow artists Mary Coleman and Jacqui Torrens